The 1900 Crop of Yearlings at Annita Stud Farm.

THEY ARE A VERY CHOICE LOT

Death of M. L. Bergen-Rustler Wins at Baitimore-Sale of Belle Mc-Gregor - Little Betz at Acca-Other Items

Nestled among the hills of historic Albemarle county, interspersed by beautiful dales and valleys and watered by living dales and valleys and watered by living streams flowing direct from the mountains. is Annita Stud Farm, owned by A. D. Payne, of Charlottesville, and one of the best-known breeding establishments in Virginia. The successful sires, Jim Gray, winner of many good races, and imp. Water Level, the English-bred son of Isonomy and Water Lily, by Lord Lyon, are the stallions in use. In them are centred fashionable strains of blood, which also may be said of the choice band of brood mares at Annita, including, as it does, six of the best daughters of grand old Eolus, the dead son of imp. Leamington, who brought fame and fortune to Ellerslie, and whose name is dear to hosts of Virginians. The 1800 crop of yearlings at Annita surpasses those of any former year, while to these may be added three unusually choice two-year-olds, which Mr. Payne guarantees untried and his statements are to be relied upon. The entire lot will be shipped to New York at an early date and sold at auction by the American Horse streams flowing direct from the mountains and sold at auction by the American Horse Exchange on Monday, June 11th.

The yearlings are eleven in number, and include an elegant-looking bay colt by Jim Gray, out of the Eolus mare, Vigiinclude an elegant-looking bay colt by Jim Gray, out of the Eolus marc, Vigilette, dam of Artillery, Grayling and Leonidas, and really the best colt she has ever dropped. The bay colt by Jim Gray, out of Joyeuse, is large, handsome and of the most pleasing conformation. The bay colt by Jim Gray, out of Lady Bellevue, is very clever, but another bay colt by that good son of Ten Broeck, out of Julin L., is really a splendld specimen; so is the black colt by the same sire out of Leola, the sister of Vigilette. The appropriately-named brown filly. On The Level, Leola, the sister of Vigilette. The appropriately-named brown filly, On The Level, a full sister to Water Crest and Water House, by imp. The bay coit by Water Level, out of Carronade, is not very large, but a real good one in appearance. One of the gems of the collection is a bay filly by Diabolus, the son of Edus, out of Louise, the Fair. She has fine size and is a racy-looking youngster. Not very large, but a choice individual, is the chestnut filly by Castaway II, out of the Edus mare Edmonia, who traces back to the famous Nina, dam of Planet. The two-year-old chestnut coit, Howard Gratz, by imp. Newcourt, out of Mildred, has line size and is heautiful in point of conformation, while a couple of high-class ones may be seen in Water Run and Water Turk, both sons of Water Level, the former a full brother to Water House and Water Crest, being out of Miss House, while Water Turk's dam is the richly-bred mare Turca, by Tristan or Turco.

MRS. HUTCHINSON AND HER HUSBANDS

Husband Marco Says That She is Not Rich

AND THAT SHE FOOLED HIM.

The Bride Denies All His Allegations and Declares That She Is Quite Happy With Her Young Actor,

NEW YORK, May 26.-Special.-Cornelius B. Marco, of this city, a former husband of Mrs. Louisa Hutchinson, whose romantic marriage in Richmond to a young actor was reported in The Times this morning, says that Mrs. Hutchinson is seventy-eight years old, and that instead of possessing a fortune of $3,000,000, her income is less than $1,000 a year. Marco went to the Herald office yesterday afternoon and talked freely about his former

"Why, people will think I was a chump for giving her up," he said, "and my father, who lives at Darlington, S. C., and is fairly well off, will think I am a fool." "She took me in," said Mr. Marco, with a reminiscent frown, "and she has taken that fellow Hutchinson in. She told me that she was worth $2,000,000. She promised that after our marriage she would settle $100,000 on me absolutely. So I married her in the parlor of the old Hotel Brunswick on December 20, 1894.
"I never got from her more than three or five dollars a week, and she used to fuss over giving me that much. At times "Why, people will think I was a chump

"She began to grow jealous and suspicious of me, and didn't want me to talk with other women. She even went so far as to put detectives on my trail.

"I got sick of the whole business. I was young and had my life before me. So I told her one day, and we agreed to separate lart large. She not her decree several

MRS. HUTCHINSON DENIES.

The Herald prints a special from Boston, in which it is said that Mrs. Hutchinson denies every statement made by Marco. "I never paid him one cent to marry me," she said. "He married me for my money, and after we were married I found out that he was a man who would not work and had no visible means of support. I supplied him very liberally with money, and he squandered it in all kinds of reckless living and on other girls. I remonstrated, but it was of no avail. Finally I got tired and sick of his actions and secured detectives, who had very little trouble in obtaining evidence against him. Then I secured a divorce."

According to this statement Mrs. Hutchinson declares that she has a large holding of real estate in New York city, and that she may be worth much more than $200,000. She declares that she has a harge had her according to the state that she has a harge holding.

of real estate in New York city, and that she may be worth much more than $3,000,000. She declares that she is happy with her husband, and does not want no-toriety. Some of her Boston friends say that Mrs. Hutchinson is very wealthy, but has been swindled during the last few years by people to whom she has lent money and whom she has assisted in many instances. instances

NO MORE 5-CENT FARES. The Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company announces that next week transfer privileges on the system will be greatly increased, but that the fare to and from Coney Island will be increased to 10 cents. The company declares that the 5-cent fare does not pay, and that in order to make its running expenses at that price it is necessary to crowd passengers uncomfortably on the cars.

The fact that Seth Low will preside at the mass-meeting to be held in New York June 26th to ratify the action of the Phil-adelphia Convention shows that Mr. Low is once more a Republican in good stand-ing, and that there is harmony between his faction and the regular organization. SAW HIS HEART BEAT.

A remarkable surgical operation was performed in one of the Long Island hospitals on Thursday night. Fritz Brandt, a mason, was taken to the hospital suffering from a self-inflicted pistol shot wound in the breast. The surgeon discovered that the bullet had entered at the point of the breast bone. The patient was suffering in-tense pain, and it was decided that an operation was necessary. After the man had been placed under the influence of ether it was discovered that the builst had shattered the breast bone and had passed shattered the breast bone and had passed through the lung backward and downward into the liver, where it was lost. The incision made by the knife gave the surgeon an opportunity to see the human heart performing its functions. The delicate operation of sewing up the pericardium was performed, but the patient died a few hours later.

WASHINGTON AND LEE.

Movement to Raise an Endowment Fund of $100,000.

LEXINGTON, VA., May 24-Special .-Mr. Herbert Welsh, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. John L. Campbell, of Wash-ington and Lee University. Mr. Welsh delivered the address before the faculty and student body at their regular weekly gathering. A large crowd greeted the speaker, many ladies being in the audience. President William L. Wilson introduced Mr. Welsh, who spoke on education in general and industrial education in particular. He dwelt upon the importance of recognizing the fact that the development of the South depends largely upon a proper guidance in the industrial cducation of the whites and blacks.

Mr. Welsh has endeared himself to the friends of Washington and Lee by inaugurating a movement in Philadelphia for the raising of an endowment fund of $100,000 for the better equipment of the University to promote the higher intellectual and moral training of the young men of the South, on whom will depend troduced Mr. Welsh, who spoke on educa-

Open Acknowledgment About Ladies' Suits

Will Cause Crowds to Flock to The Meyer Store.

(Second Floor, Front.)

This announcement will create great interest among ladies who will be glad to get this season's beautifully tailored suits for so little. Some time ago The Meyer Store frankly owned up that the largest purchase of ladies' suits in the history of their business was the biggest mistake they ever made. The backward season has left them with a stock they cannot afford to carry over for another season. The thousands of dollars invested in these suits would mean the stagnation of a great deal of money if the goods are carried over, so the store stands ready to lose on every single suit to clear them out. The buying sagacity of Richmond shoppers should be in evidence to-morrow. can secure the newest and most worn tailored suits for a third and in some cases more than a half off real value. A schedule follows which eminently fulfills every promise for great savings.

To Tell the Tale of Economy to Men. (Second Floor.) A high-class department store of Brooklyn recently closed its doors and disposed of a major portion of their great stock at once. Their magnificent stock of Men's Trousers were priced too high for rapid moving, so would-be purchasers supplied themselves elsewhere, and in the meantime the landlord wanted his building and the trousers went begging for a customer. To make a long story end quickly, we wish to state that this entire lot of trousers were on sale at our store all day yesterday and the buying was so brisk we have only eleven hundred pairs left to tell you about. Most any size is here, but you take chances in this respect, and the longer you put it off the "longer" your chances are. Short talk of what is left.
